

Changes revolving around your needs

Courteous, friendly, ethical, adding-value-assessment registration services with purpose and integrity

BRS

BRS mission, vision and values supports our brand which proudly bears a consumer-centric legal commitment.

Actions to “hold the line” on the strength of each organization provides fundamentals toward improvements and even shifting to a higher level of performance and market position, and this needs is a must in today’s free market economy.

Our network of exclusive professionals having worked for decades with the highly successful organizations—through adverse and favorable cycles—help us to carry-out regulatory affair assessment services with the experience to help your organization to the lead of the curve. When a global economy throws demands that combine market trends, changes in technology and evolution of regulations, the relevance of having the knowledge to know what it takes to contribute to your organization’s success is vital.

We are at the fallout of a fail monetary policy extended from decades that has ignore significant changes carrying worldwide impact...

January 2010

At BRS, client-organizations provide us with valuable feedback about market conditions, risk and our services. We listen, act and improve our services—focusing in assisting clients to improve competitively and reducing risk.

Since we continuously address client needs and pursue improvements within a consumer-centric commitment, BRS client-organizations continue to benefit from dependable and adding-value-assessment services.

BRS accredited management services includes:

- ISO 9001
- ISO 13485
- ISO 14001
- ISO 22000
- HACCP MS (...21 CFR 110, 21 CFR 120, 101, CODEX based)
- OSHMS (occupational safety... OHSAS 18001 | ILO-OSH | Loss Prevention)
- ISMS (information security...), ISO/IEC 27001
- Social Accountability

and interaction with regulatory requirements including:

- HIPAA
- Sarbanes-Oxley
- Gramm-Leach-Bliley
- MDD
- FDA

Integrated Management Systems; combining ISO 9001 | ISO 14001 | ISO 22000 and other benchmarks.

...key to our success is client advocacy, as part of a network of professionals, collaborative team effort, and business partnership within a consumer-centric commitment...

BRS

the most accurate match...

When your organization needs management services with the precise combination of skills, experience and character... when you need someone who is capable and competent of assessing for opportunities beyond registration... when you could use an insightful and innovative perspective assisting your organization to higher levels of achievement and performance... please contact us.

A management system assessment for registration is demanding on your organization as it is equally demanding from an accredited conformity assessment — registration body that focus in global competitiveness and reduction of risk with a consumer-centric commitment. This requires an in depth knowledge of your industry and your business, and the experience to put it together contributing to support continuous success .

BRS has the knowledge and the experience to provide best-in-class conformity assessments regulatory affair activities.

Our network of professionals contributes to improve performance, with over four decades of experience.

BRS focuses on a commitment to long-term, client-driven relationship through a protocol to help your organization improve with purpose and integrity.

BRS

The BRS network of professionals is one global team of assessors and technical experts who have heightened awareness of the importance of understanding and advocating competitiveness. BRS core members have an average of over 25 years of professional business experience propitiating actions to hand down tacit knowledge from one generation to another.

We are a exclusive global team operating with passion for your success and rigorous work ethics to help you improve performance, while building on your values and principles of quality, adding-value, integrity, trust, character and ethics.

quality

Joining the BRS network of professionals is by invitation; our assessment—auditors do not follow the common path of applying, interviewing, hiring or subcontracting.

... We continuously search for and nurture the best possible team of exclusive professionals.

BRS

We made Adding-Value-Assessment

a systematic approach that enables going beyond merely to meet requirements and onto recognizing opportunities to improvement-innovate-invent (I³), manifesting change and sustainable best practices... as client-organizations determine... We consider our operations and approach to be the most innovative. Acting on BRS requests are moments of reflection which are if anything even more valuable than taking action and in an era when peace of life is becoming increasingly frantic.

The crown of our mark. A BRS certification mark is an object of significant achievement. What makes the BRS mark esteemed perhaps, better left to conjecture. Whether is the unique combination of the competency of our global network of exclusive professionals or the values instill through our mission and values or adding-value-assessments, and only client-organizations achieving the BRS mark as a basis for continual improvement can fully appreciate our inimitable provision of our service.

Regions of Service:

North America

Central America

South America

Euro Asia

Asia Pacific

Europe

Our vision is to provide solutions to client-organizations by striving to be their most favorable option in conformity assessments certification, as we do not pursue to be the biggest.

BRS

BRS

Rim of the World Office, California

31977 Hilltop Boulevard, Suite D — POB 1020 Running Springs, California USA 92382-1020

global@brsglobal.net

www.brsltd.org

From international +1.909.867.4003

America · Euro Asia · Middle East · Asia Pacific · Europe

BRS