

BRS FOOD SAFETY CERTIFICATION FOR HACCP

PROVIDING FOOD SAFETY CERTIFICATION PROGRAM THROUGH HACCP...

There is never a more appropriate time for a third-party HACCP certification. Food-borne illness are ongoing and the consumer increasingly becomes aware. The international community seeks to reduce food safety uncertainty for which has adopted HACCP.

BRS has developed a HACCP certification protocol. This protocol includes HACCP guidance document and verification checklist.

Certification

BRS as an independent third party certification body provides food safety certification of your facility. It is required that BRS certified professional visit your organization, assess the practices and methods to conduct process and activities. Your organization will receive a 3-year valid certificate under which BRS must assess your organization every 6 months.

Third-party HACCP certification offers that a team of competent and impartial professionals verify that your organization has an effective safety food system. Successful implementation of BRS HACCP MS will help organizations discover and avert potential hazards tainting food and drink.

Why Certification

Upon successful assessment, this will demonstrate to others that your organization abides by the principles and requirements of HACCP. BRS provides guidance document as well verification checklist to client organizations.

Gaining certification through BRS will help your organization to demonstrate effective safe food practices.

Certification will improve overall food safety performance, remove uncertainty and enhance market opportunities and growth.

BRS is third-party HACCP certification body providing FSMS (Food Safety Management System) ISO 22000 training and certification.

THE ROUTE TO CERTIFICATION

Application: Contact BRS and request application form (questionnaire).

Application Process: BRS Rim of the World Office reviews the questionnaire, study your needs and present you with a quote to meet your organization's specific needs.

Selection of BRS: Once your organization selects BRS for HACCP certification the organization agrees to Term of Business (TBA).

HACCP Team Appointment: BRS selects and present to the organization for the organization to accept. The team could comprise of local and/or global members.

Phase I: This is the initial stage of assessment with the objective gather information on your organization and to discuss the level of readiness to continue to Phase II HACCP toward certification. This will help in achieving certification in Phase II.

Note: We may combine Phase I and Phase II for small organizations.

Phase II: Continuing from Phase I with the objective to recommend your organization to issue a "Certificate of Registration", HACCP, the organization is assessed against HACCP MS. And upon successful completion of the assessment protocol the certificate is issued. The time permitted between Phase I and Phase II is no more than 90 days.
