This workshop is designed to take the participants through the key activities involving effective assessment-auditing Environmental Management Systems (EMS), in particularly, ISO 14001:2004.

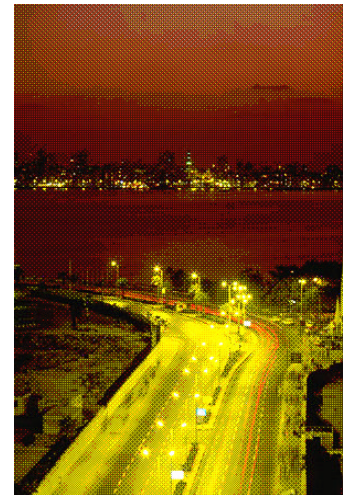

An interactive, case study approach is used to learn effective practices for:

- Managing an audit program
- Conducting an audit
- Leading an audit team
- Adding—Assessment value

In addition, a business aspect is introduced to link the importance of environmental management excellence to overall organizational performance.

Note 1: The training program is limit to 20 participant.

Note 2: BRS as an International Registration, the program is compatible with IAF (International Accreditation Forum) signatory bodies requirements.

Demonstrating environmental responsibility has become a requirement for organization's pursuing "world class".

TESTIMONIALS

- Joe Cascio, US TAG Chairman Technical Committee 207 (ISO 14000 series), about the lead instructor; in working with Victor... he is an excellent presenter of the EMS ISO 14000 international...series.
- Toyota, Environmental Manager; it truly, effectively, and efficiently helping Toyota linking manufacturing and socio-environmental responsibility.
- MBA Professor (German visiting Professor); I took this course hoping to find additional knowledge and include in our educational programs; I learned that is a must to include an EMS course in business administration advanced studies. The BRS recognized lead auditor program provides the path, knowledge and workshop experience to follow as benchmark for the MBA program.
- Edison International, Mohave Power Generating Station, Manager of QMS and EMS; we now truly understand the concept of ISO 14001 and ISO 9001 management systems integration.
- TÜV America, 3rd Party Auditor; ... as 3rd party auditor, crossing from quality management to environmental management, this course is a must.
- INORCA, tier 1 supplier to Renault and Toyota, QMS-EMS Manager; absolutely an eye-opening experience by effectively presenting business performance and environmental responsibility.
- Dutch-VEGE ATK Automotive Manufacturing, QMS and EHS management responsible; without this lead auditor course we would have taken an ineffective and inefficient path implementing ISO 14001, and the framework to our internal EMS auditor training. Victor's presenting has the ability to help me visualize
- EMS within the context of Lean, kaizen, and 6 Sigma.
- Bank of America, from VP C. Skarlatos, Victor Cintron; your support has helped us build our environmental program, which makes our progress possible
- VP Argentinean Petroleum—Chevron-Exxon, A. Lowndes; Victor's support has been instrumental in orchestrating our EHS objectives in twice winning the highest global environmental honor, the "Green Cross" (an award we earned and presented in Switzerland by former USSR Prime Minister Mikhail Gorbachev), absolutely outstanding!
- NYSE Trading Fortune 500 Company Management Representative... I have taken 3 Lead Auditor courses and BRS covers issues important to our organization and myself professionally, this is the best of all three courses
